March 2009

A 100 Million Dollar Milestone for Bay Equity

Less than a year after opening for business, mortgage lender Bay Equity announces it has achieved $100 million dollars in residential loans funding in a single month.

Bay Equity President Brett McGovern said, "This is a very significant milestone for our growing company. It not only signals our success as a new company, it provides the foundation to begin to take the next steps toward becoming a true regional lender."
